

4/23/2019
2019 Scholastic Superstars: Trevor Grohowski
Citizens Voice

Name: Trevor Grohowski

School District: Greater Nanticoke Area

Parents: Diane and Eric Grohowski

Q. What accomplishments are you most proud of and why?

A. I am most proud of becoming an Eagle Scout due to the hard work and effect that the Boy Scouts have had on my life.

Q. What were your most rewarding school or community activities?

A. The most rewarding activities I have done are making it to districts for pole vaulting after working hard in the off season, and becoming an Eagle Scout due to the high standard that everyone expects from you.

Q. Do you have any hobbies?

A. I like to mountain bike, pole vault, snowboard, hike and ride dirt bikes.

Q. What are your plans after high school graduation? Why did you choose this path?

A. I plan to attend college for a degree in electrical engineering. I chose this path due to the numerous projects my father and I did around the house.

Q. What do you see yourself doing and where do you see yourself living in 15 years?

A. In 15 years, I see myself as an electrical engineer for a top notch company with plenty of free time to pursue my hobbies.

Q. Who do you most admire and why?

A. I most admire my brother because of how he sticks to his moral code. He has always been a positive role model for me and has been there when I needed him. He always tries to bring out the best in me.

Q. In a sentence, what is your philosophy of life?

A. My philosophy in life is to send it. This means that if I have something that I want to accomplish, but there are risks involved, I just bypass the risks and do it.

Q. The most interesting thing about me is ...

A. ... my ability to adapt and overcome any situation.

About Trevor Grohowski:

Trevor is vice-president of the National Honor Society and a dual-enrollment student. He is a member of the football and track and field teams. He is a senior patrol leader and ranked as an Eagle Scout in Boy Scouts. He has a part-time job with a party planning business.

From his educators' nomination:

“Trevor is a high-achieving student who has taken on many academic challenges while still involving himself in sports, volunteering, and community events. He is a true leader and a role model within our school community.”